Journal of Reformed Theology
Published in co-operation with the International Reformed Theological Institute (IRTI), Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Aims & Scope
The Journal of Reformed Theology (JRT) is a refereed international journal of systematic, historical, and biblical theology. The JRT is an instrument for the study of living and contextual theology that provides a forum for debate on classical and contemporary theological issues and offers an update on new theological and biblical literature.

The Journal of Reformed Theology originates from the International Reformed Theological Institute (IRTI). Established in 1995, IRTI comprises a world-wide network of scholars involved in Reformed theology. 'Reformed' refers to the theological tradition that started with the sixteenth-century Reformation in Strasbourg, Zurich, and Geneva, as an expression of Christian faith of all times and places. IRTI is linked to the Faculty of Theology of the VU University Amsterdam. IRTI's current director is Martien E. Brinkman.
